2024 Working Women's Forum
Wednesday, October 16, 2024 | 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm St. Petersburg Museum of History

This year's forum, part of our ongoing observance of National Business Women's Week, will focus on bridging differences through open dialogue and collective problem-solving. Our esteemed panel of speakers—leaders with diverse life experiences—will offer unique perspectives on civic participation, community outreach, and grassroots efforts that foster social cohesion. Together, we'll explore how we can unite around shared goals and build a stronger, more inclusive community.
